

Oxford Study Abroad Program

Snapshots from 2004, 2006, 2008 & 2010

Prof. Jim Craig

Worcester College, Oxford University

Worcester College entrance

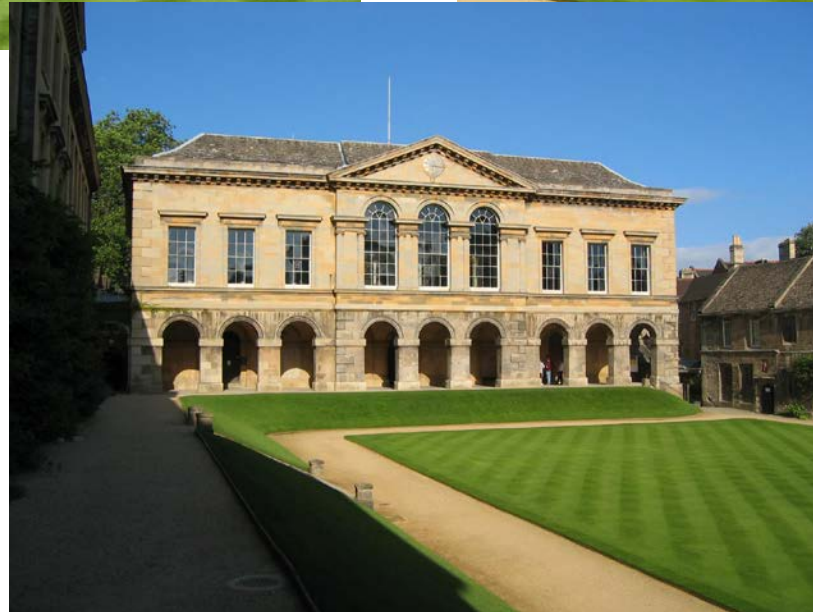

Program Faculty (2006)

The Quad

Keep off the grass!!!

Campus Scenes

Dining Hall and Provost's Reception

Student Life at Worcester

Student rooms in upper floors

Sainsbury Dorm

Classroom

Oxford Scenes

Oxford Surroundings

Why Oxford Study Abroad?

- Humanities classes are related to where you are.
- Personal travel from Oxford:
 - Classes are Monday-Thursday (required attendance)
 - You are free Friday-Sunday
 - Lots of great destinations in the UK and Europe by rail or air
- Small classes (typically 10-15).
- Much more personal interaction with instructors:
 - Everyone lives within Worcester College
 - Open office hours Monday-Thursday all day
 - Problem sessions in evenings
- Program director and assistant director are very familiar with Oxford and surroundings.